

SEEKING INDIGENOUS UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS!

University of Idaho

Indigenous Knowledge for Effective Education Program

IKEEP APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM

IKEEP apprenticeships are for freshman and sophomore Indigenous undergraduates who are interested in exploring careers in education. Apprentices are welcome from all Idaho colleges and universities!

WHAT IS IKEEP APPRENTICESHIP?

As an IKEEP apprentice, you will be provided with a variety of mentorship opportunities such as Indigenous educators, pre-service teacher peers, IKEEP alumni, and University of Idaho faculty.

Apprentices receive scholarship support for one year and will participate in summits, talking circles and workshops that will build your understanding of Indigenous knowledge systems and community-centered education that help Indigenous students and communities thrive.

BENEFITS

- 1) Develop culturally sustaining and revitalizing practices to meet the contemporary needs of Native communities
- 2) Tailored support for Indigenous students to be change agents and nation builders
- 3) $500 scholarship per semester ($1000 for one academic year)

HOW TO APPLY

Email Angela Jacobson, IKEEP Manager
at acomojacobson@uidaho.edu

Please attach:

- 1) a letter of recommendation
- 2) a statement of interest that explains:
  - who you are
  - what you are studying
  - why you would like to join IKEEP

Please email us if you have questions!

