

Jesse Buchanan Award

About the Award

Established in 1927, the Jesse Buchanan Award honors University of Idaho undergraduate students for highest scholarship. This recognition is granted to undergraduate students who complete all coursework at University of Idaho and graduate with a 4.00 grade point average. Transfer students are not eligible.

The award is in honor of Jesse E. Buchanan, who was the first University of Idaho undergraduate student to earn a 4.00 grade point average for inresidence coursework in 1927.
