

Specialized Communities

CBE Floors

University of Idaho

College of Business and Economics

Housing and Residence Life and the College of Business and Economics have teamed up to provide the ultimate living experience. Located in Theophilus Tower, students have the opportunity to live and interact with other students in the same area of study.

Enjoy programing, specific to your college with the convenience of having other CBE students living right next door!

As part of a Specialized Community you will...

- Make friends and become part of a community where students share common academic and extracurricular interests.
- Get acquainted with and learn from College of Business and Economics students, faculty and college staff during our floor events and activities.
- Increase your academic success! Gain access to our student success initiatives and resources available to you as a student in the CBE Professions Program.

