

EARN TWO POWERFUL DEGREES

Concurrent JD/MBA

Ready to lead in law and business?

The University of Idaho offers a concurrent JD/MBA program fully in-house, combining the strengths of the College of Law and the College of Business and Economics. It's a double-dose of Vandal pride with real-world career power.

What can you do with a U of I JD/MBA?

These two degrees equip you for leadership in:

- Corporate law and compliance
- Startups and entrepreneurship
- Executive management and consulting
- Risk management, real estate, finance and more

Why choose the JD/MBA program at the U of I?

Maximize your time and tuition

- Count 12 MBA credits toward your JD, and 12 JD credits toward your MBA.
- Earn an MBA by completing just 15 additional credits beyond your JD.

Both degrees can be completed in three years (requires summer courses).

Flexible. Focused. Future-Ready.

- A JD sharpens legal reasoning; an MBA adds teamwork, financial modeling and strategic thinking.
- The fully online MBA's flexibility makes it a perfect fit with your in-person JD schedule.
- Stand out in roles where legal literacy and strategic leadership matter.

Idaho Law students typically apply for a concurrent program during their 1L year.

This academic plan is intended as a guideline only and does not replace regular academic advising.

Specific course schedules are subject to change based on course availability, faculty assignments, and semester offerings.

If a student fails to complete the M.B.A. program, no more than 6 credits will be allowed toward the J.D. degree.

Students who have not completed an introductory accounting course are required to take ACCT 2010 near the beginning of their MBA coursework.
